

Paw-ty Planner

Grab the chew toys and collect the tennis balls. Let Disney's Shaggy Dog Paw-ty Planner help you host a bash that's the dog's bow-wow. Follow these tail-wagging tips and your guests will sit up and beg to be invited back!

Step 1: Paw-ty Place

Dogs love to run, so whether it's in the backyard, the park, or even at the beach, be sure your Paw-ty locale has plenty of room to roam. If possible, choose a location with some shade and easy access to a water dish.

Step 2: Paw-ty Guests

Create your list of guests to invite (don't forget the furry ones!), then use the printable templates to make your Dog Paw-ty invitations and "Dog Tags."

Step 3: Paw-ty Snacks

A party isn't a paw-ty without yummy snacks for kids and pups. Get started with the recipes enclosed or create your own "dog-themed" treats. And don't forget the hot dogs! Bone Appetit.

Step 4: Paw-ty Fun

Use the included Doggone Fun Activities page for inspiration. Sink your teeth into a host of mutt-themed games and events sure to get everyone's tail a wagging. Or check out the DVD Bark-Along bone-us feature for some additional laughs and howls.

Step 5: Doggie Bags

What party would be complete without some fun to take back home to the dog house?

- Make picture frames out of popsicle sticks for doggy decorating. Have someone take instant snapshots or digital photos of each guest and their dog and print them out. Add pictures to your new frames for a lasting memory of the dog paw-ty and include them in each guest's Doggie Bag. Add to the fun and have everyone decorate his or her own frame.
- Finally, visit your local pet store or dollar store and include a small toy or matching dog collars, one small one for a bracelet and a regular one for your guests' fury friends.

Paw-ty Snacks

For your two-legged friends, follow the recipe below to make some "People Chow."

It might look like dog food but take one bite and you'll be howling for more.

People Chow

One 12 oz. package chocolate chips
1/2 cup peanut butter
1/4 cup butter
1 tsp. vanilla
9 cups Chex® cereal
1/2 cup powdered sugar

Mix chocolate chips, peanut butter, and butter together and microwave on high for 1 minute. Stir and microwave for 30 seconds more until mix is smooth. Add vanilla and stir. Pour cereal into separate bowl and pour chocolate/peanut butter mixture over cereal and stir. Once mixed, put mix into a plastic bag. Add powdered sugar, seal the bag, and shake. Spread evenly on waxed paper to cool.

If you have guests with peanut allergies, use almond or sesame butter instead of peanut butter.

And don't forget your canine guests of honor. These Peanutty Pupsicles are bound to be pup-ular!

Peanutty Pupsicles

1 banana
1/2 cup peanut butter
1/4 cup wheat germ
1/4 cup chopped peanuts

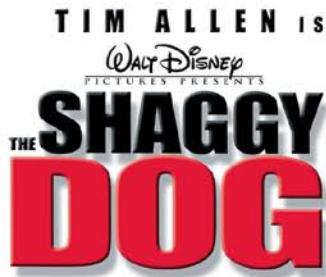

Mash banana and peanut butter together. Stir in wheat germ. Chill one hour. Wet your hands and roll teaspoons of batter into balls, then roll in chopped peanuts, coating evenly. Place on a cookie sheet and freeze until solid. Put them in a container and store in the fridge or freezer.

Paw-ty Fun

Throwing your own pooch paw-ty is as easy as 1-2-flea! All it takes is a little imagination to make familiar games and activities go to the dogs. Here are some bone-a-fied ways to get the paw-ty started!

Sense of Smell Contest

As Dave begins to turn into a dog, he becomes very sensitive to smells. Have a "smelling" contest. Blindfold the contestants and have them sniff different items to guess what they are. The person with the most accurate answers wins!

Doggie Relay Race

Get some doggie-powered teamwork going at your Dog Paw-ty by setting up an obstacle course and having kid/dog teams do a relay race. Get creative! For instance, each dog must hold a tennis ball in his mouth and run a lap with his owner, then give the ball to the next duo on his team until everyone has completed the relay. Whichever team finishes first wins. Fetching races are another great variation!

Obey the Command

Play a clever canine version of Simon says! All players must imitate only the movements and commands of the "master" that are preceded by the words "Shaggy Says." If they respond to a command that doesn't follow "Shaggy Says," they're out! The "master" can include dog commands like rollover, bark, beg, and the like.

Dog Contest

The big event! Have a dog competition to see which dog can sit the longest, which can jump the highest, which is the best Frisbee catcher. You can also give Dog Show prizes for biggest dog, smallest dog, shaggiest dog, and so on. Prizes can be chewbones, dog treats, or little dog toys.

Cat Cat Dog

It's "Duck Duck Goose," but with a doggie theme! Kids sit in a circle facing one another while one child who is "it" walks around the circle. As they walk around, they tap each child's head and say "cat" until they decide to call "dog." Once someone is tapped as the "dog" they quickly chase the player who is "it" around the circle trying to tap them before they can sit down in the now open spot. If the "dog" is unable to do this, they become "it" for the next round and play continues. If they do tap whoever is "it," the tagged player has to sit in the center of the circle and the "dog" then becomes "it" for the next round. The child in the middle can't leave until another "it" is tagged to replace them.
